Peel Regional Police Association endorses Patrick Brown for re-election as Brampton mayor

BRAMPTON, ON – The Peel Regional Police Association has endorsed Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton.

Adrian Woolley, President of the Association, announced the endorsement today at Brown's campaign office in Brampton.

"Our members know how important it is to have municipal leaders who take public safety seriously and listen to the people serving on the front lines," said Woolley. "We are proud to endorse Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton."

Brown thanked the Association for its support and reaffirmed his commitment to community safety.

"I'm honoured to have the support of the Peel Regional Police Association," said Brown. "Its members serve our community every day, and I value their perspective on what it takes to keep Brampton safe. I will continue to advocate for the officers, resources and partnerships our growing city needs."
