FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL 506 ENDORSES PATRICK BROWN FOR RE-ELECTION AS MAYOR OF BRAMPTON

CARMEN PRINCIPATO
BUSINESS MANAGER

Toronto, ON - Local 506, a trade union representing nearly 10,000 members across the Greater Toronto Area, many of whom are proud, hardworking residents of Brampton, today announced its endorsement of Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton.

TONY DO VALE
SECRETARY TREASURER

Patrick Brown has been a champion for unionized labour and has energized Brampton's construction sector through record investment in public infrastructure. That investment has delivered tangible benefits for Local 506 members by helping create good, local, unionized jobs while generating community benefits for Brampton residents.

ROLY BERNARDINI
PRESIDENT

Mayor Brown's commitment to growing Brampton has created opportunities for skilled tradespeople to build the critical infrastructure of tomorrow — from roads and transportation infrastructure to hospitals, commercial developments and other major public and private-sector projects. For Local 506 members, this growth means good, local jobs and the opportunity to put their skills to work building the future of the community they call home, where they can proudly say, "I built that."

LUIS PIMENTEL
VICE PRESIDENT

Local 506 Business Manager Carmen Principato, who is himself a longtime Brampton resident, said:

SAVERIO REPOLE
RECORDING SECRETARY

"I'm proud to announce our endorsement of my good friend Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton. Under Mayor Brown's leadership, we have seen a strong commitment to investment and growth in Brampton, and we are confident he will continue that track record. We look forward to working with him to ensure Brampton remains a place where skilled tradespeople can find good jobs and where labour-friendly policies continue to support working families and unionized workers."

FABRIZIO MASSARI
EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBER

MILTON MEDEIROS
EXECUTIVE BOARD MEMBER

Local 506 will continue to advocate for the interests of its members and their families by supporting elected officials, political leaders and community partners who share our commitment to good jobs, strong communities, investment in infrastructure and policies that support unionized workers and the skilled trades. Our members are proud to build the communities where they live and work, and Local 506 will continue to make their voices heard at every level of government.
