LiUNA Local 506 endorses Patrick Brown for re-election as Brampton mayor

BRAMPTON, ON – LiUNA Local 506, the Labourers' International Union of North America local representing construction workers across the Greater Toronto Area, has endorsed Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton.

"We are proud to support Mayor Patrick Brown for re-election," said Carmen Principato, Business Manager of LiUNA Local 506.

"He has been a steadfast supporter of the labour movement and has energized the construction sector in Brampton with record investment in public infrastructure. Let's keep building Brampton with Mayor Brown."

Brown thanked Principato and the members of Local 506 for their support.

"The men and women of LiUNA Local 506 build the places where Brampton lives, works and plays," said Brown. "I'm grateful to Carmen and every member of Local 506 for their support. Together, we'll keep The BIG Brampton Build moving forward."

Election Day is Monday, October 26, 2026. To learn more about The BIG Brampton Build, visit VotePatrickBrown.com/build.
