Hindu temple and faith leaders endorse Patrick Brown for re-election

BRAMPTON, ON — Temple representatives and faith leaders associated with 12 Hindu temples and religious organizations have endorsed Patrick Brown for re-election as Mayor of Brampton, extending their wholehearted support and solidarity as he seeks another term.

"Mayor Patrick Brown has been a great friend to the Hindu Sabha. He has helped Hindu Sabha as and when need arises. He has helped Hindu Sabha with the development of Temple and our plans to manage traffic congestion with the new intersection approved. We are thankful to Mayor Patrick Brown for his continued support, leadership and commitment to our community," said Madhusudan Lama, President of Hindu Sabha Temple.

Bharat Mata Mandir management also recognized Brown "for his continued support, leadership and commitment to our community" in its endorsement message.

Pt. Yudhishtir Dhanrajh, Spiritual Leader of Brampton Triveni Mandir, also extended his "wholehearted support and solidarity" to Brown in his endorsement letter.

"I am honoured by the support of these Hindu temples and faith leaders, whose service and volunteerism contribute so much to Brampton. I look forward to continuing our work together, standing with our Hindu community and building an even stronger city for everyone," said Mayor Brown.
